UNTOLD

SCOT

ALBA | CHRUTHACHAIL

Two gay men are here to perform for your pleasure. They sigh, pout and flirt, caressing both each other and objects from corporations that claim to adore them. Is this simply an intimate session for these boys and their fans, or is there something more being consumed?

Exhilarated and bewildered by what they are doing, the boys go through the motions, posing and selling themselves, trying to give you exactly what you want. But who is it all really for? Both the celebration and exploitation of queerness take centre stage in this cheeky exploration of contemporary gay male identity.

About Stories Untold Productions Ltd

Founded by Robyn Jancovich-Brown in 2021, Stories Untold Productions is a new Scotland based production company focusing on work which promotes equality, inclusion and well-being in society.

Stories Untold Productions seeks to speak about the unspoken and highlight stories and voices which are not heard in mainstream spaces. We are creative producers who work collaboratively with artists to research, create and stage work which challenges the systemic under-representation of particular artists and topics on UK stages.

About Craig Manson

www.craigmanson.info

Craig Manson (he/they) is a performer and artist based in Glasgow. He makes performance that uses humour and movement to explore contemporary LGBTQIA+ themes. His work spans theatre, live art, dance, film, cabaret and club performance.

Craig likes to let his work speak for the interests of his practice as an artist, rather than the other way around. Every process he begins is different and responsive to the needs of the project and its themes. Based on this, Craig is interested in the connections between sexuality, gender, mythology and commercialisation, and he uses live performance to explore these topics.

His practice is always collaborative and often involves the input of other LGBTQIA+ artists whose work he's excited by. They like to work collaboratively to create joyful and exhilarating experiences for an audience.
